Re: Separation Agreement and General Release

Dear Leo:

You (Leo Blomen) and the Board of Directors of HydroGen Corporation have come to the conclusion that, given the critical point that the Company has reached in its life-cycle, that the Chief Executive Officer of HydroGen Corporation and HydroGen, L.L.C. (the "Company") should be a full-time employee of the Company living in the United States and working out of the Company's offices on a daily basis. Given the Company's desire to retain your services as a consultant and your desire to continue providing consulting services to the Company through Blomenco B.V. ("Blomenco") we would like to retain your services as a consultant to provide technical and other services to the Company and end your consulting services as Chief Executive Officer and Chief Technology Officer of HydroGen Corporation and the Company.

To that end, we have agreed to terminate cooperatively any consulting or other relationship between the Company and Blomenco, through which you provide Chief Executive Officer and Chief Technology Officer services as a consultant to the Company and HydroGen Corporation, and to enter into the attached Consulting Agreement between the Company and Blomenco dated November 10, 2007 to govern your future relationship with the Company. The term "you" in the remainder of this Separation Agreement and General Release ("Separation Agreement") shall mean collectively Leo Blomen and Blomenco.

Paragraph 1 and paragraph 6 through 22 of this Separation Agreement, the Consulting Agreement between and among the Company, Leo Blomen and Blomenco dated November 10, 2007 attached as Exhibit "A" (the "Consulting Agreement") and the Confidential Information, Noncompetition and Invention Assignment Agreement attached as Exhibit "B" ("Confidential Information Agreement") will be effective November 10, 2007. Paragraphs 2 through 5 of this Separation Agreement will be effective after your signature and expiration of the revocation period set forth in Paragraph 21 of this Agreement.

1. General Terms of Termination. We mutually agree as follows:

(a) The consulting relationship between the Company and Blomenco through which Leo Blomen provides Chief Executive Officer and Chief Technology Officer services as a consultant to the Company and HydroGen Corporation or any other relationship between Leo Blomen or Blomenco and the Company and Leo Blomen or Blomenco and HydroGen Corporation, shall end effective November 10, 2007 (the "Termination Date"), and the future consulting relationship shall be exclusively governed by the Consulting Agreement, except as expressly provided herein.

(b) Leo Blomen shall continue to be a Director of HydroGen Corporation, and Chairman of the Board of Directors of HydroGen Corporation (the "Board of Directors"), and a shareholder of HydroGen Corporation, subject to your right to resign your Board position and the right to remove you from the Board or as Chairman at any time, consistent with the Board of Director's fiduciary obligations, Nevada Law, the Articles of Incorporation of HydroGen Corporation, and the By-Laws of HydroGen Corporation. During the time you serve as Chairman, you will receive annual compensation at a rate of €25,000 payable in equal monthly installments.

(c) Blomenco will be paid the amount of €4,846.15 representing any accrued amounts for consulting services rendered that are unpaid as of the Termination Date.

(d) Blomenco will be paid for (i) any accrued but unreimbursed reasonable travel and business related expenses of Leo Blomen related to Leo Blomen's consulting services to the Company or HydroGen Corporation that were incurred prior to the Termination Date and (ii) any accrued but unreimbursed reasonable travel related expenses of Leo Blomen's wife incurred during October 2007 while accompanying Leo Blomen on business travel related to Leo Blomen's consulting services to the Company or HydroGen Corporation that were incurred prior to the Termination Date.

(e) You shall enter into and be bound by the Confidential Agreement, which shall supercede the Employment, Confidential Information, Noncompetition and Invention Assignment Agreement signed by you on May 2, 2005.

(f) You shall be bound by and comply with the Insider Trading Policy attached as Exhibit "C".

(g) You shall sign and provide the Company with the letter providing notice of termination attached as Exhibit "F".

2. Termination Payment. Once your General Release in Paragraph 3 below becomes effective, and provided you comply with the other terms, conditions and requirements below, the Company agrees:

(a) To pay Blomenco €252,000, to be paid out in equal bi-monthly installments, beginning not more than 21 days after you execute and return (without revoking) this Separation Agreement to the Company.

(b) To pay Blomenco a pro rated Annual Supplemental Fee (the "Annual Supplemental Fee") for the 2007 calendar year, calculated as referenced in Exhibit "D".

(c) To pay Blomenco the equivalent in Euros of $31,583 to be paid in one lump sum payment on or before January 15, 2008.

(d) To continue the Consulting Agreement under its terms and conditions;

(e) For purposes of the Stock Option Agreement between Leo Blomen and HydroGen Corporation made as of December 11, 2006 attached as Exhibit "E" (the "Stock Option Agreement"), a termination of employment by Hydrogen Corporation without cause under Section 5.4 has not occurred. Termination of the Consulting Agreement shall be deemed termination of employment for purposes of the Stock Option Agreement. As long as the Consulting Agreement remains in effect, your shares shall continue to vest in accordance with the terms of the Stock Option Agreement and as provided herein.

(f) You may retain the laptop computer and cell phone provided to you by the Company and in your possession on the Termination Date.

(g) You will not be eligible for the payments and benefits described in Paragraph 2 unless: (i) you sign this Separation Agreement and return it to the Company no later than 21 days after it is received by you and you do not timely revoke it in accordance with Paragraph 21 below; (ii) you comply with Paragraph 7 below relating to Company property; (iii) you have entered into and comply with the Confidential Information Agreement; and (iv) you have entered into and comply with the Consulting Agreement.

3. General Release.

However, the General Release does prevent you, to the maximum extent permitted by law, from obtaining any monetary or other personal relief for any of the Claims you are releasing in Paragraph 3.

5. Adequacy of Consideration. You acknowledge and agree that the consideration under Paragraph 2 above:

- (a) Is not required by any policy, plan or prior agreement;

For purposes of this Separation Agreement, “consideration” means something of value to which you are not already entitled.

6. Prohibition on Using or Disclosing Confidential Information. Regardless of whether you sign this Agreement, you are prohibited from using or disclosing confidential and/or proprietary information acquired as a result of the consulting or other relationship with the Company, HydroGen Corporation or any other Releasee, and which is not generally known by or readily accessible to the public. This confidential or proprietary information includes, but is not limited to: Company proprietary or confidential information, technical data, trade secrets or know-how, including, but not limited to, research, product plans, products, services, customer lists and customers (including, but not limited to, potential customers of the Company with whom you have become acquainted), customer contacts, customer purchasing practices, markets, software, developments, inventions, processes, formulas, technology, designs, drawings, engineering, marketing, distribution and sales methods and systems, sales and profit figures, finances, personnel information including but not limited to that regarding compensation, skills and duties, and other business information that you learned of, obtained, or that was disclosed to you during the course of your consultancy, either directly or indirectly, in writing, orally or by drawings or inspection of documents or other tangible property. However, confidential or proprietary information does not include any of the foregoing items which have been made generally available to the public and become publicly known through no wrongful act of yours, or any information known to you prior to or outside of your affiliation with the Company.

7. Company Property and Documents. Regardless of whether you sign this Agreement, and as a condition of receiving the payments and benefits set forth in Paragraph 2 above, you agree to return promptly to the Company any and all Company and/or HydroGen Corporation property or documents relating to the business of the Company or HydroGen Corporation requested by the Company to be returned containing Confidential Information as defined in the Confidential Information Agreement, other than documents provided to all members of the Board of Directors.

8. Release by Company. The Company agrees to release you of and from any Claims arising out of your performance of consulting or any other services for the Company prior to the Termination Date based upon facts which are known to the Company or its Board of Directors as of the Termination Date, other than any Claims, based upon facts which are known or unknown, for theft, embezzlement, breach of fiduciary duty, fraud, misappropriation of Company assets or business opportunity, or self dealing.

9. Confidentiality of this Separation Agreement. 10. Directors and Officers Insurance and Indemnification Agreement.

(a) The Company and HydroGen Corporation acknowledge that the execution of this Agreement shall not impair your rights under HydroGen Corporation's Directors and Officers Insurance coverage as it pertains to (a) actions taken by you prior to the Termination Date in your capacity as Chief Executive Officer of HydroGen Corporation and the Company or Chief Technology Officer of HydroGen Corporation and the Company and (b) your status as a director of the Board of Directors. The Company and HydroGen Corporation further acknowledge that the execution of this Agreement shall not impair your rights under the Indemnification Agreement by and between you and HydroGen Corporation dated as of September 14, 2006 with respect to your status as a director of the Board of Directors and your status as Chief Executive Officer of the Company and HydroGen Corporation and Chief Technology Officer of the Company and HydroGen Corporation prior to the Termination Date, and any indemnification rights and rights to advancement of legal fees available under the Company's bylaws or the laws of the state of Nevada, if any.

(b) In the event that the United States government should determine that you must pay income tax to the United States government under the Tax Convention between the U.S. and the Netherlands in connection with matters occurring prior to the execution of this Separation Agreement, and that you must withhold this amount (which is considered "exempt" from double taxation under Article 25, Paragraph 2 of the Tax Convention; the "Exempt Amount") at the same time as, and in addition to, ongoing income tax withholdings as required by the Netherlands, the Company agrees to pay you funds equal to the Exempt Amount. You will repay any amount paid once you are reimbursed for the Exempt Amount by the Dutch government. Additionally, the Company agrees to reimburse Blomenco for any administrative fees not to exceed 5% of taxable income levied by the Dutch government pursuant to its reimbursement of the Exempt Amount. You agree to provide to the Company such tax and related documents that evidence your obligations to the Dutch and U.S. governments. In the event you do not use your best efforts to obtain reimbursement for the Exempt Amount by the Dutch government or provide the Company with tax and related documents requested, you shall immediately repay to the Company all amounts it paid to you under this section 10(b).

11. Cooperation. You agree that, upon reasonable request, you will meet with representatives or agents of the Company or HydroGen Corporation and provide any information you acquired during the course of your consulting or other relationship, if any, that relates in any way to any disputes or other matters involving the Company, HydroGen Corporation or any Releasee (as defined above), subject to the terms of the Consulting Agreement.

12. Non-Disparagement. You agree that you will not make any negative comments or disparaging remarks, in writing, orally or electronically, about the Company or any other Releasee (as defined above) and their respective products and services. The Company agrees that its officers and the Board of Directors of HydroGen Corporation will not, directly or indirectly, make any negative comment or remarks about you or your services. However, nothing in this Separation Agreement is intended to or shall be interpreted to restrict the right and/or obligation: (i) to testify truthfully in any forum; or (ii) to contact, cooperate with or provide information to any government agency or commission.

13. Governing Law and Forum. This Separation Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Pennsylvania, without giving effect to any conflict of law provisions. Any court action instituted by you or on your behalf relating in any way to this Separation Agreement, the consulting relationship between the Company and Blomenco, or the consulting or other relationship Leo Blomen may have, if any, (including any employment relationship) with the Company or HydroGen Corporation, shall be filed exclusively in federal or state court in the County of Allegheny, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and you consent to the jurisdiction and venue of these courts. In the event you substantially prevail in any action to enforce this Separation Agreement, the Consulting Agreement or the Confidential Information Agreement, the Company agrees to pay your reasonable attorneys fees, costs and expenses of the action. Moreover, each paragraph or part or subpart of each paragraph in this Separation Agreement is independent of and severable (separate) from each other. In the event that any paragraph or part or subpart of any paragraph in this Separation Agreement is determined to be legally invalid or unenforceable by a court and is not modified by a court to be enforceable, the affected paragraph or part or subpart of such paragraph shall be stricken from the Separation Agreement, and the remaining paragraphs or parts or subparts of such paragraphs of this Separation Agreement shall remain in full, force and effect.

16. Entire Agreement. This Separation Agreement and Exhibits constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes any and all prior representations, agreements, written or oral, expressed or implied, by the Company or any Releasee arising out of or relating in any way to the consulting relationship between the Company or HydroGen Corporation and Blomenco or the consulting or other relationship Leo Blomen may have, if any with the Company or HydroGen Corporation. This Separation Agreement may not be modified or amended other than by an agreement in writing signed by Blomenco, Leo Blomen and the Company's Chief Executive Officer or President.
